

YOUTH MUSIC FUND SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

P.O Box 1517
Port Townsend, WA 98368

To Whom It May Concern:

The Youth Music Fund is a 501(C)(3) organization beginning its eighteenth year, whose mission it to provide scholarships to musically talented youth of Jefferson County to attend music enrichment programs, either in the form of a music camp, or other music oriented programs.

Preliminary student selections are based upon:

- The application completion
- Music teacher evaluation sheet
- One personal letter of recommendation (other than family member or music teacher)
- Applications will also be judged on conciseness, content and clarity.

Please type or write neatly.

Application must be post marked no later than April 1, 2009. There will be a preliminary screening of the applications for completeness, etc. and then a secondary selection by our judges. Those selected from the secondary group may be asked to audition but will be notified no later than May 1, 2009, of any audition dates

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION EVALUATION

Dear Music Director/Teacher:

A recommendation by his/her instructor must accompany each student's application for the Youth Music Fund Scholarship or the Larry Curtis Memorial Scholarship. Would you be so kind as to answer the questions listed below? In lieu of an extensive letter of recommendation, a brief paragraph on the back of this sheet will suffice. The scholarship committee is primarily concerned whether the candidate would be a deserving recipient of one of these fine scholarships.

Your timely attention to this matter would be most appreciated.

1. Is the student self-motivated? yes no

2. Would you consider him/her to be a responsible person? yes no

3. Is the student reliable? yes no

4. Does the student demonstrate a zeal or love of music? yes no

5. Based on your knowledge, does the student perform well in his/her other academic areas?
 yes no

6. Please rate his/her musical abilities:
 average good very good exceptional?

Name of Student _____

Teacher Signature _____ Date _____

Please have the student return her/his application with this letter no later than April 1, 2009 for the application to be considered.
